Class History

In 1941, B.T. (Before Television), a sizable group of poor little mixed-up kids plodded into the sacred halls of Holgate High, eager to attain a deeper knowledge of civilized social existence. (Besides, it was compulsory).

Finally, after eight years, we emerged from our sea of stupidity and bewilderment and entered into a vastly, more complicated universe--HIGH SCHOOL. Besides our curriculum of educational devices, many of us engaged in extra-curricular activities such as baseball, basketball, and band, and made an effort toward dramatics, (One-Act Plays). We seriously began to scrutinize the possibilities of raising money. This was done through our class dues, as well as the sale of the products of our mothers culinary ability (Bake Sales). We also had a dance on which we cleaned up, financially speaking. (18¢). All this was done with the help or toleration of Mr. Deckrosh, our advisor.

Suddenly we found ourselves in the Sophomore year, with all its prestige over the mere Freshman Class. This year was much more lively, with many of our numbers attaining the age of driver's license. Of course, our athletes were still busily developing their prowess at their chosen diversions. We all pitched in a little harder in any task that would reward us with filthy lucre (money). Some of these were bake sales, dances, and a big Donut Drive at the end of the year. During the interlude of learning (schoolyear) several of us performed in the one - act plays.

The next year found us sitting in the "Junior" row, with Mr. Gisler as our new advisor. This year was even busier than last. We ordered our class rings; then waited with very great patience. When we had torn about all our hair out, they arrived. For the next week or so, we went about attracting attention by dropping sly hints, such as "Boy, it's hot in here,..think I'll take my ring off." In the way of raising money, we worked in the concession stand at basketball games, had several bake sales, a Donut Sale, raffled off several cakes, and a radio at basketball games. Several were in the one-act plays. In the spring, we gave our Class Play, "The Atomic Blonde", which was a rip-snorting success. We wound up the year with our Junior-Senior Banquet, which was a lot of work, but even more fun.

Another summer passes and we are back again. This time, in the hallowed position of (hold your breath) Seniors. We started off the year with an Ice Cream Social. Later we had a Donut Sale. Then came our Senior Play, "Shoot the Works", which was another success. Then, one day a representative from the B. & O. gave us a talk about our trip, and, after a little discussion (more like a Cival War) we decided that we would go to Washington, New York and Niagara Falls. We are now looking forward to this year's banquet and our trip. After that we will go out into the cruel cold world to make our fortunes and help make the world a better place in which to live.

CLASS POEM

The time's now come for us to say farewell to Holgate High. Just a line or two in this little poem to be remembered by.....

In school Larry Aelker is usually bored. When he rides to fame it will be in a Ford.
Our pitcher in baseball is Baringer, Dan. He's won for the "Tigers" again and again.
Burdette as a Toastmaster is hard to beat. On the road to Ayersville his "Chevie" you'll meet.
Emerson--first of the Brinkman line, He'll be a farmer; I'll bet a dime.
A determined girl is Brinkman, Joyce; Nursing seems to be her choice.
Another Brinkman, Paul by name, in the field of art he'll gain his fame.
Charles' playing piano is really a treat; His "boogie-woogie" is hard to beat.
Georgene Cummins is quiet and shy. She'll be a success or really know why.
Always studying is Betty D. Someone great in the world she'll be.
Jerry his ukelele does play. As "center" in basketball, he leads the way.
A bright future for Norman Dickman we see, so industrious he is--a rich man he will be.
"Yogi" Diemer is so fancy free. He'll be a great singer yet, by gee!
Short and sweet is Ruthie Eis. She does all the boys entice.
A barber or chef Kendol Engel will be; or maybe gain fame on accordian--we'll see.
Craig Frost is one of those Varsity Five. All those baskets--Man Alive!
In his father's store Bob Gebhardt employs; at school he is one of the shyest of boys.
Accompanist for Girls' Glee is Nancy Grim, and clarinetist in Band--what vigor and vim!
That blue-eyed smile we know Donna for. She's nicknamed Blondie--need we say more?
June is a girl so shy and so trite, Some boy will find that she is "Just Right".
Out late at night Melvin Lane does stay; in study halls he will sleep the next day.
Ronald, or "Sparrow" as he's better known; in singing in Glee Club he's always shone.
From South Ridge Jeanie came to stay; she's made many friends with her winning way.
In science Bob Pfau graces his name, as the second Einstein; he'll gain his fame.
Francis or "Lefty" in baseball has shone; he's put many men "out" by the balls he has thrown.
Eldene so kind, with soft brown eyes; The profession she chooses will draw a prize.
Dick Riebesehl--such an ambitious lad! In Spanish Class he worked like mad.
Maybe a farmer Irvin will be. A member of F. F. A. is he.
Small and mighty John Thomas is; while driving a car he's really a "whiz".
From Miller City, Madonna came; in English Class she's won acclaim.
In the world of sports, Esther gains her fame; she leads cheers at the basketball game.
Delbert Westrick is known as "Dutch"; for playing a quitar he has "That touch".
Edith is always so laughing and gay. On the road of success she'll find her way.
Pat, so beguiling and so demure; she does all the fellows lure.
I've worked on this poem with all of my might, from dusk of the evening till dawn's early light. And so for myself, I can only say, "Farewell to these classmates; may we meet again some day.

Class Will

I, Larry Aelker, do hereby will and bequeath my position in typing class to anyone who is interested.

I, Dan Baringer, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to crack my knuckles to Miss Clark. May she have as much fun cracking them as I did.

I, Burdette L. Brink, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby will and bequeath my masterful driving technique and superlative Chevy to any poor, needy soul who thinks he can have more fun with it than I did.

I, Emerson Brinkman, do hereby will and bequeath my typewriter to anyone who can type better than I.

I, Joyce Brinkman, do hereby will and bequeath my position as cashier in the cafeteria to Winifred Okuley. May she eat less than I did.

I, Paul Brinkman, do hereby will and bequeath my smelly luck at the ping pong table to Cletus Limpach.

I, Charles Christen, do hereby will and bequeath my position as accompanist for Boys' Glee and Mixed Chorus to anyone who is able to make fewer mistakes than I.

I, Georgene Cummins, do hereby will and bequeath my typing skill to my sisters. May they make fewer errors than I.

I, Betty Davis, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in the study hall to Arlene Eiden. May she study more and get into less trouble than I did.

I, Jerry Deitrick, do hereby will and bequeath my basketball uniform to Don Moore. May he get a better fit than I did.

I, Norman Dickman, do hereby will and bequeath my 1890 desk to anyone who can keep books in it without having them fall out all the time.

I, Duane Diemer, do hereby will and bequeath the gum under my seat in Study Hall to anyone who has courage enough to chew it.

I, Ruth Eis, do hereby will and bequeath my shortness to Lenora Schuller. May it be of more advantage to her than it was to me.

I, Kendol Engel, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the Annual Staff to Paul Young. May he work harder than I.

I, Craig Frost, do hereby will and bequeath my study hall seat and my curly hair to Tom Snyder. May he have curlier hair than I have.

I, Robert Gebhardt, do hereby will and bequeath my good behavior to Kenneth Burill. May he have as much pity on the teachers as I did.

I, Nancy Grim, do hereby will and bequeath my Chemistry Workbook to Winifred Okuley. May she be able to solve the problems better than I did.

Class Will

I, Donna Hohenberger, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname to Jerry Eitzman. May he live up to it as well as I did.

I, June Kurtz, do hereby will and bequeath my superb talent for having overdue library books to whomever wants it. May they pay fewer fines than I did.

I, Melvin Lane, do hereby will and bequeath the opportunities I had to anyone who can put them to a better advantage.

I, Ronald Like, do hereby will and bequeath my total possessions including books, pencils, paper, trouble, and desk; location, second row in study hall, to Arnold Wagner. May he have more fun than I did.

I, Jean Mangas, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the Tatler Staff to Jackie Schwab. May she have her work in on time better than I.

I, Bob Pfau, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my Chemistry equipment to Danny Schwab. May he blow up fewer Bromine generators than I.

I, Francis Poulson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my used pencils to Jerry Eitzman. May he use them less than I did.

I, Eldene Ricker, do hereby will and bequeath my job as Secretary of the Senior Class to Joann Rettig. May she make fewer mistakes than I.

I, Richard Riebesehl, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Commercial Law Class to anyone who can get more out of law than I did.

I, Irvin Romes, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in study hall to some dumb bunny who wants to sit in it next year.

I, John Thomas, do hereby will and bequeath my broken-down seat to Jerry Like or Jerry Steinpres. May he get in less trouble than I.

I, Esther Weber, do hereby will and bequeath my position as cheerleader to Karen Eis. May she make fewer mistakes than I.

I, Delbert Westrick, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in typing class to Walt Peck. May his ability of being sent to study hall be less than mine.

I, Edith Westrick, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Secretary to Mr. Horney to Carolyn Lulfs. May she make fewer mistakes than I.

I, Patricia Westrick, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in study hall to Rita Seifert. May she have as many unforbidden chats in it as I did.

Ronald L. still seems to have a torch burning for Winifred B.!!!!

Whose ring is Sally M. wearing? Could it be Dick D. from Napoleon?????????

It seems Suzy M. is carrying a torch for Larry A.

We hear Winifred O. got a Christmas present from Francis P. Wonder what

Nancy G. was seen at the Valentine with Bill Hahn lately.

Donna H. has been seen wearing Larry A's ring!!! How about that kids??????

We hear Carolyn S. is interested in a Malinta Senior. Could him name be Eddie????

It looks like things between Ruthie and Don are coming along quite nicely We heard he took her home one Sat. night from the bowling alley

THANK YOU!

Without our sponsors and patrons it would have been impossible to publish this, our 1953 yearbook. Because of them we have an annual which will help keep alive the memories of our school years and which will often bring happiness to the parents and friends who will enjoy it.
